TO THE R E A D E R.

THE Incouragement which this way of Sale hath met with from the Learned, makes me hope for success answerable to the goodness of the Books, which (for their Number) are undoubtedly to be esteemed amongst the best that have hitherto been Sold by Auction; and as to their Binding generally new, or well conditioned. I doubt not but that such Gentlemen that will give themselves the trouble of viewing the Catalogue and Books, will confirm the opinion of the Seller, by such an encouragement of the present undertaking as it deserves.

This Sale will begin on Wednesday next, the third of April, at Nine in the Morning, and three in the Afternoon, at Sam's Coffee-House in Ave-Mary Lane, near the West-end of Saint Pauls, and so continue till all are Sold. At which Place the Books will be Exposed to View, two Days before the Sale begins.

I. He that bids most is the Buyer, and if any Difference arise, the said Book or Books shall forthwith be Exposed to Sale again.

II. That all the Books in the Catalogue are (for ought we know) Perfect, but if any of them appear to be otherwise before they be taken away the Buyer shall have his Choice of taking or leaving them.

III. That the Money for the Book or Books bought is to be Paid by the Buyer within fourteen Days after the Auction is ended at the Place of Sale.
